You are receiving this brochure because:

- You are an AT&T retiree or former employee, and you are or will become eligible for Medicare by Feb. 1, 2023.
- You are a dependent of an AT&T retiree or former employee, and you are or will become eligible for Medicare by Feb. 1, 2023.

Introduction

Your available healthcare coverage under the AT&T group health plans is changing Jan. 1, 2023. If you or your dependent is currently eligible for Medicare or will be eligible as of Feb. 1, 2023, you will need to make a new election. This guide provides high-level information to help you understand Medicare basics, your healthcare coverage options and next steps. You need to make an election between Oct. 15 and Dec. 7, 2022. Take action to avoid a gap in coverage for you or your eligible dependents.

Important Medicare Information

It's important to understand the basics of Medicare. Medicare is made up of four parts: Medicare A, B, C and D. Each part helps pay for certain healthcare services and has certain costs that you may have to pay. Your Medicare costs will depend on what coverage you choose and what healthcare services you use.

Medicare Part A

Part A is hospital coverage. It covers care you receive while an inpatient in a hospital or skilled nursing facility.

Medicare Part B

Part B is medical coverage that covers doctor visits, clinic services and care you receive as an outpatient.

Medicare Part C

Part C is Medicare Advantage. These plans combine the coverage of Parts A and B into one plan. They often include prescription drug coverage, too.

Medicare Part D

Part D is prescription drug coverage. Plans cover many medications that are prescribed by your doctor or other qualified health professionals.

Medicare Requirements

In order for you to be enrolled in a Medicare plan, you must:

- Continue paying for your Medicare Part B premium
- Have a permanent street address (not a P.O. Box)
- Have your Medicare ID card number
- Be entitled to Medicare Part A and enrolled in Part B
- Live within the 50 United States, the District of Columbia or U.S. territories

If you are not entitled to Medicare Part A or enrolled in Medicare Part B, and/or you live outside the 50 United States, the District of Columbia, or U.S. territories, you should contact Social Security at ssa.gov or by calling 800-772-1213, TTY 800-325-0778, between 8 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

If you're already enrolled in CarePlus, you'll automatically stay enrolled during annual enrollment to continue your CarePlus coverage.

If you want to opt out of CarePlus, you must make an active election during annual enrollment.

If you are not currently enrolled in CarePlus, you will need to make an active election during annual enrollment to enroll in CarePlus coverage. If you do not make an election, you will be opted out of CarePlus. You can resume participation at a future date.

The amount of your basic life insurance may be changing in 2023. If your amount is changing, you will be offered a one-time opportunity to enroll in optional life insurance coverage when you select your 2023 benefits choices.

You will receive mailings from the AT&T Benefits Center about CarePlus coverage and basic life insurance, if applicable, as well as coverage available for members of your family who are not yet Medicare-eligible. Please reference the AT&T Eligible Former Employee CarePlus — A Supplemental Benefit Program and AT&T Group Life Insurance Program for more information.

Enrollment

You have a limited time to enroll in coverage. Don't wait. You have 90 days prior and 90 days after your Medicare plan effective date to enroll in a Medicare plan during your initial eligibility period. If you are currently Medicare-eligible, you need to make an election between Oct. 15 and Dec. 7, 2022. Take action to avoid a gap in coverage for you or your eligible dependents.

Plan Coverage

You and your eligible dependent can enroll in separate plans. For example, you can enroll in the AT&T Group Medicare Advantage (PPO) plan and your dependent can enroll in coverage through Alight and vice versa.

Additionally, you and your eligible dependent can enroll in separate insurance policies through Alight. If you decide to enroll in the same plan, you still need to complete two separate applications.

Not All Family Members Are Medicare-Eligible

If you are the retiree or former employee and are Medicare-eligible but have dependents who are not, their eligibility for coverage under the AT&T group plans is contingent upon your enrollment in the AT&T Group Medicare Advantage (PPO) plan insured by UnitedHealthcare® or through Alight. If you do not enroll in one of these options, your dependents are not eligible for coverage under the AT&T group medical, dental and vision plans.

FAQs

If I enroll in the MAPD plan or in coverage through Alight, will I receive a reimbursement for my Medicare Part B premium?

No. If you enroll in either the Exchange or MAPD, you will not receive a Medicare part B reimbursement.

If I enroll in the AT&T Group Medicare Advantage (PPO) plan and then elect an individual plan through Alight in subsequent years, can I change my enrollment options (and vice versa)?

Yes. You can change your elections annually.

If I don't make an election during the enrollment period, will I be able to choose coverage at a later date?

No. If you don't make an election, you will default to no coverage. You will not be able to enroll again until the next Medicare Open Enrollment.

I am turning 65 soon. What do I need to do?

You should receive information from Social Security well in advance of your 65th birthday. Take action as instructed to ensure you are enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B, and for AT&T post-employment coverage for the remainder of the current plan year. Enrollment in Medicare Parts A and B is important to maintain your current level of benefits under AT&T post-employment group coverage. You can contact the AT&T Benefits Center at 877-722-0020 to learn more.

If I'm Medicare-eligible and have coverage as an active employee or as a dependent of an active employee from another employer (not retiree coverage), can I enroll through Alight?

No. Because you are employed or have coverage as an active employee or as a dependent of an active employee through another employer, Medicare is not your primary coverage. If you are not eligible for Medicare as your primary coverage, you will not be able to enroll in individual health insurance through Alight. However, if you dis-enroll in your coverage from another employer and timely enroll in Medicare Parts A and B, you will be eligible to enroll in Medicare Advantage and Medigap plans through Alight. In order to enroll in Prescription Drug Plans (Medicare Part D) through Alight, you must be enrolled in either Medicare Part A or Medicare Part B.

Alight Health Market Insurance Solutions Inc. is currently undergoing a name change, and such change is still pending in certain states. Please note the former name is "Aon Hewitt Health Market Insurance Solutions Inc."
